

ADULT ED OPPORTUNITIES (and not just on Sundays!)

➔ No Adult Ed on Sunday, April 4th, Easter Day ◀

Understanding ALS ("Lou Gehrig's") Disease Bob Reed, MD; Pam Ward, RN; Heidi Knellinger, PT, OCS, SCS, TODAY, at 9:15 am & 11:00 am, Social Hall

Since the Knox family has been deeply impacted by the news of Barb York's recent diagnosis of ALS, we feel that it would be valuable to offer an educational session in order to better understand the disease, and to learn how to welcome and support individuals and their families who are affected by physical disabilities. In Adult Education on March 28th, Knox members Dr. Bob Reed, Pam Ward and Heidi Knellinger will provide background about ALS and about how we, as a faith community, may be supportive to all those who face similar physical challenges. On that Sunday morning, please join us at 9:15 am or 11am in the "old" Social Hall downstairs for this opportunity. We are grateful to the following people for their participation in this program: Bob Reed is a neurologist and Knox member. Pam Ward is a Knox member & on staff as our Faith Community Nurse. Heidi Knellinger, also a Knox member, is a physical therapist.

Coffee and Conversation—will NOT meet this Sunday or next (April 4th).

Scripture & Culture: Letters of John Sundays, 9:15 am, Session Room (Begins April 11) Led by Holly Toensing

We invite you to join us for our next scripture study on the Johanne letters. Beginning April 11 through the end of May, we explore the historical context of these short, but important books, and discuss their significance to us today. Readings for the class are: 4/11—I John 1; 4/18—I John 2; 4/25—I John 3; 5/2—I John 4; 5/9—I John 5; 5/16—II John; 5/23—III John.

Holly regularly attends Knox and has taught religion courses for over 20 years. She received her Ph.D. in Biblical Studies from Vanderbilt University, and is currently working on a degree in counseling at Xavier University.

21st Century Religion and Faith... Evolution of theology: the Making of a Presbyterian Today April 11, 18, 25; at 9:15 am, Knox Room Glenn Rogers

In April we invite you to share in a study of our theological heritage and current structure, with a particular focus on what makes Knox unique. We will look at three important factors of being Presbyterian: a deep sense of God; a theological understanding of how we relate to God; and an organizational structure that gives a sense of formality. Everyone is invited to join us for this learning opportunity. Glenn will be drawing on 2 books; The River of God by Gregory J. Riley and Calvin for Armchair

Knox Pictorial Directory

♦ NEW PICTORIAL DIRECTORY! Terri and Gary Schmitt have volunteered to spear-head the production of a new Knox Pictorial Directory. Starting this week, you may sign up for an appointment to have your portrait made. Sign up sheets are available at the Deacon Desk in the Michigan Ave. lobby. Photos will be taken by Gary Schmitt, in the session room, by appointment, starting on Sunday, April 11. If you have questions about scheduling an appointment, call Gary at 513-919-0189 or email him at gmschmitt1@gmail.com. At the time that your portrait is taken, you will be asked to confirm the contact information that will be published in the directory.

The directory will be printed at Knox, in black and white, arranged into a loose-leaf binder, and sold at cost. The directory will also be available online (in color, for free) in a password protected PDF format. If you have an email address, we can send you a free digital copy of your photo. If you do not have email, we can help you to get a 5x7 or 8x10 print made at Walgreens.

♦ Commons Café is a gathering of those of us 50+ with a focus on health and wellness. We will have a program or activity from 12-12:30 pm followed by lunch. You can bring your own or order a delicious box lunch from Sunshine Market on Erie Avenue. Contact Pam Ward by 9:30 am each Monday if you would like to order lunch (321-2573x108 or pward@knox.org). No RSVP necessary. All are welcome to join us!
